BULES CONCERNING DOGS IN BROOKLYN AND KILLINGLY.

BROOKLYN AND KILLINGLY.

Whereas, a rabid dox has recently run at large in the Town of Brooklyn, Conn., thereby exposing persons, cows, dogs and other domestic animals to the intective disease known as rables.

Now, therefore, the Commissioner on Domestic Animals, deeming it reasonable and necessary for the security of the fahabitants, and their property, and to prevent the spread of said disease, and to protect the public therefrom, in pursuance of the authority given under Chapters 156 and 187 of the General Statutes, as amended by Chapters 156 and 172 of the Public Acts of 1921, hereby makes and promulgates the following rules and regulations for confining, controlling or destroying dogs and other domestic animals in the Towns of Brooklyn and Killingly:

mais in the Towns of Brooklyn and Killingly;

1. All dogs and other animals in each of said towns known to have been bitten by a rabid dog or other animal shall forthwith be mercifully klied by the Dog Warden of the Town.

2. All dogs in said towns known to have been in contact with a rabid dog but not postively known to have been bitten by said rabid dog, and all dogs showing symptoms of rabies, shall be quarantined in close confinement to the acceptance of the Dog Wardens, and the Special Deputy, until released by the Commissioner on Domestic Animals, or his Special Deputy.

seceptaine of the Dog Wardens, and the Special Deputy, until released by the Commissioner on Domestic Animals, or his Special Deputy.

3. All dogs in said towns shall be quarantined in close confinement or securely chained on the premises of the owner or Reeper, and no dog shall be allowed to go at large on and after the date these raises shall go into effect until the same are rescinded, except

(a) Dogs being held of led on leashes of not more than five feet in length, held in the hand of the owner, attendant or keeper, provided such owner, attendant or keeper is of responsible age.

(b) Hunting dogs while actually engaged in hunting game, accompanied by a licensed hunter.

(c) Sheep and cattle dogs while actually engaged in driving or tending sheep or cattle, and accompanied by and in control of the owner, keeper or herdsman.

4. The Dog Warden, any Constable or Police Officer having jurisdiction in either of said towns shall kill or dispose of as directed by the Commissioner on Domestic Animals, all stray dogs which he may find at large without collar and license tag attached not confined and controlled agreeable to the foregoing, and shall impound and hold such dogs and kill the same if unclaimed as is provided by law.

5. These rules shall take effect at 12 oclock noon the 11th of August, 1921.

Section 3401, amended by Chapter 172, Public Acts of 1921; Chapter 187 and Section 3406 of the General Statutes.

**Every person owning, keeping or housing a dog whe shall volate any provisions of this Statute for which no other penalty is provided. or any rule for restraining or dest oying dogs, legally made and published, shall be fined not more than 30 days, or both.

the vote and the geographical and economic conditions of the region.
The whole controversy turns upon the interpretation of the phrase "geographical and economic conditions."
The vote was: for Germany 704,512; for Poland 471,523. The farming districts were largely for Germany; the important mining and manufacturins townships gave a majority for Poand.
The Poles interpreted the result as giving them virtually all of the country
